PETERSON HAS 2 WOODEN CRIBS

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 15.—Aaron Peterson, 21, of 125 South St., South Boston, has been accused of the murder of his mother, Mrs. Sallie Peterson, 61. The body was found in the basement of the home on November 14.

PETE RIPLEY

LEWISBURG, O., Sept. 26.—A body was found in a well in the basement of the Ripleys' home. The body is believed to be that of a man who disappeared last week. The cause of death is unknown.

HARRY HAMMOND DIES IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Harry Hammond, 58, of 324 W. Madison St., died suddenly last night. Hammond was a well-known lawyer in the city.

ASTHMA SUFFERER

D traveller on a train last week, a man was found to be suffering from asthma. The man, who was traveling alone, was brought to a nearby hospital for treatment.

PETE RIPLEY

EASTON, Mass., Nov. 15.—A body was found in a well in the basement of the Ripleys' home. The body is believed to be that of a man who disappeared last week. The cause of death is unknown.

PETE RIPLEY

LEWISBURG, O., Sept. 26.—A body was found in a well in the basement of the Ripleys' home. The body is believed to be that of a man who disappeared last week. The cause of death is unknown.

HARRY HAMMOND DIES IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Harry Hammond, 58, of 324 W. Madison St., died suddenly last night. Hammond was a well-known lawyer in the city.

ASTHMA SUFFERER

D traveller on a train last week, a man was found to be suffering from asthma. The man, who was traveling alone, was brought to a nearby hospital for treatment.

PETE RIPLEY

EASTON, Mass., Nov. 15.—A body was found in a well in the basement of the Ripleys' home. The body is believed to be that of a man who disappeared last week. The cause of death is unknown.