

WILLIAM D. HAYWOOD.

This is "Big Bill" Haywood, the chief mogul of the Industrial Workers of the World, Chicago faction. Haywood is one of the big factors in the labor world today. He belongs to the propaganda league of the I. W. W. and is an organizer and lecturer and is usually on hand where there is the biggest prospect of a strike. Bill believes in sabotage, syndicalism, direct action and all the rest of it. He used to belong to the Western Federation of Miners, but now they hate him. He has no use for Samuel Gompers, and was a central attraction in a row on the outskirts at the recent convention of the American Federation of Labor, at Rochester. The peaceful branch of the Socialists, who believe in the bloodless battle of the ballot, also discountenance Bill, but he is "It" with the big "I" among the Socialist insurgents.
