

CRISTY, ALBERT MOSES, lawyer, Honolulu; born at Hudson, Ohio, Feb. 13, 1889; son of Rev. Albert Barnes and Mary Wilhelmina (Linsley) Cristy; educated at Brown University, A. B. 1909; Brown Glee Club, 1906-09; diver Brown swimming team, 1908-09; Harvard Law School, LL.B. cum laude, 1914; assoc. editor Harvard Law Review, 1913-14; married Jessamine J. Bowman of Chicago, in Honolulu, September 28, 1915; daughter: Carol Linsley Cristy. Began practise of law with Frear, Prosser, Anderson & Marx, 1914; appointed First Deputy City and County Attorney for Honolulu, 1915; re-appointed, 1917; taught mathematics and mechanical drawing in Williston Seminary, Easthampton, Mass., 1909-11. Member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Gamma Delta fraternities.