INTRODUCTION.

In the fall of the year 1911, at the suggestion of the Rev. Archibald J. Carey, there was held in Bethel A. M. E. Church, Chicago, Illinois, a "Miniature Exposition" of the achievements of the Negro along the lines of arts and crafts. The Rev. Carey was president, Thomas Wallace Swann manager and Morris Lewis secretary.

There were present during this exhibition such distinguished visitors as Charles S. Deneen, then Governor of the State of Illinois, Adjutant General F. S. Dickson, and Colonel Nathan William McChesney.

This most enlightening and successful attempt gave birth to the idea of a State Exposition. Dr. Carey introduced resolutions in the Chicago Annual Conference of the A. M. E. Church that the State Legislature be asked to contribute toward a celebration of the 50th anniversary of the issuance of the Emancipation Proclamation, which was originally to have taken place in 1913. The presiding Bishop Benjamin F. Lee appointed a committee with Dr. Carey as chairman and Mr. Swann secretary to continue work toward the furtherance of plans for the Exposition. These plans were finally presented to the Illinois State Legislature through Major R. R. Jackson, then representing the 3rd Senatorial District in the Lower House.

The result was the passage of "House Bill" M. 919. Dr. Carey was called to Springfield to consult with Governor Dunne concerning the project and was then named first of a commission to conduct the exhibition and celebration to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Emancipation of the Negro, and the following commission was named:

Rev. A. J. Carey, D. D.

Major R. R. Jackson.

Rt. Rev. Samuel Fallows, D. D., LL. D.

Hon. Joseph Medill McCormick.

Maj. George W. Ford.

Hon. W. Duff Piercy.

Mrs. Susan Jorgendahl.

Hon. John Dailey.

THE ILLINOIS (NATIONAL) HALF-CENTURY ANNIVERSARY OF NEGRO FREEDOM.

I.

The Declaration of Independence and the Emancipation Proclamation are two of the greatest documents in the development of human liberty. On the first, Washington laid the foundation of the freest and greatest Democracy on earth. Through the second, Lincoln extended the freedom and opportunities of this Democracy to the millions of Negroes who for two and one half centuries had been subject to the cruelties and injustice of inhuman slavery.

Few realized how vital were the dangers of American slavery, until the time when its abolition was indispensable to the peace and perpetuity of the Union of the American States.

For two hundred and fifty years, the intellectual, moral and social evils of slavery withered and corrupted every phase of American thought and life. So far-reaching were its baneful and blighting influences, that in many forms they still linger to plague and endanger the Nation.

From '61 to '65 the abolition of physical slavery exacted of the Nation a terrible toll of agony, treasure and life. This was the price, only in part, which justice then demanded for the physical wrongs which the Nation had done the Negro.

That the American Nation was able to free the slave, pay this price and live, is one of the most striking and phenomenal facts in political achievements; therefore the celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of American Bondmen, practically consummated in '65, is a national event of the broadest human interest.

In the galaxy of brilliant men who contributed so much to this new estate, the name of Abraham Lincoln stands pre-eminent. To his political genius, more than to any single factor, the Nation is indebted for the preservation of the Union with Negro freedom. While Lincoln was born in Kentucky, and lived in Indiana, yet it was Illinois that gave him to the country and to the world. It is peculiarly fitting, therefore, that a great celebration should be held in this State.

II.

In numbers too large to mention, the importance and significance of such a celebration is appreciated by the people of Illinois. While five years before Governor Deneen had emphasized in a public address, the educational value of the Half-Century Exposition idea, to allay race prejudice, growing out of a widespread unfamiliarity with the Negro's general social progress, it was the good fortune of Governor Dunne and the 48th Illinois General Assembly to consummate practically this noble and beneficent enterprise, by the passage of a bill creating a commission and making an appropriation for an Exhibition and Celebration to be held in the year 1915.

“HOUSE BILL NO. 919.

A BILL

For an act providing for an exhibition and celebration to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the emancipation of the Negro, creating a commission to conduct same and making an appropriation therefor.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly: That there is hereby created a commission to consist of the Governor and eight other persons, residents of the State of Illinois, two of whom shall be members of the Senate and two of the House of Representatives in the State of Illinois, all of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, to arrange for and conduct during the year 1915, at a place to be selected by said commission, an exhibition and celebration to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the freeing of the Negro from slavery. Such exhibition and celebration shall be so conducted as to show the industrial, educational and religious progress of the negro inhabitants of this commonwealth. The commission shall serve without compensation, but shall be allowed such expense for traveling, clerical help, stenographers and necessary employes as shall be actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of its duty: Provided, however, that the secretary of said commission, who shall be elected by said commission, and who may or may not be a member of said commission, shall receive such reasonable compensation as shall be determined upon and fixed by said commission. Said commission shall have full power and authority to collect, maintain and properly house and exhibit, and pay the expenses thereof.

Sec. 2. To carry out the purposes of this act the sum of $25,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated. That the said commission shall be allowed the use of the $25,000 thus appropriated, a sum not to exceed $3,000 for the collection and printing for free distribution a suitable compilation showing the progress thus far achieved by the Negroes of Illinois during the past 50 years. All payments shall be made on warrants of the Auditor of Public Accounts on vouchers of the commission approved by him.

Sec. 3. As soon after the organization of the commission, notice shall be filed with the State Treasurer and State Auditor of Public Accounts of the election of the officers of said commission who, from time to time, shall be authorized through the president and secretary of said commission, to draw warrants on the State Auditor of Public Accounts for such salaries or expenses incurred by the state commission, such warrants, however, to be subject to approval of the Governor of the State of Illinois, and the Treasurer of the State of Illinois is hereby directed and empowered to pay the same.

Sec. 4. The Commission shall annually make a report to the Governor, and within 60 days after the close of its exhibition the Commission shall make a complete report and statement of all its doings, which shall include all exhibits and representations made, and the awards made on such exhibits, if any, and such other matters as the Commission may deem of value to the State of Illinois, together with a list of all receipts and disbursements, with complete vouchers therefor. The Commission shall keep a strict account of its receipts and disbursements.

Sec. 5. The Commission shall in no manner create or incur any indebtedness or obligation in behalf of the State of Illinois in excess of any appropriation herein made.

Approved June 27, 1913."

Approved June 29, 1915."

III.

The Illinois Commission for the observance of the Half-Century Anniversary of Negro Freedom held its first meeting in the Executive Chamber, Capitol Building, July 2, 1913, at 4 P. M., Governor Dunne presiding.

The members present were Governor Edward F. Dunne, Rt. Rev. Samuel Fallows, D. D., LL. D., Mrs. Susan Lawrence Joergen-Dahl, Major George W. Ford, Rev. Archibald James Carey, D. D., Ph. D., Senator John Dailey.

The Governor stated the purpose of the meeting and the officers were elected as follows:

- Rt. Rev. Samuel Fallows, D. D., LL. D., President.
- Mrs. Susan Lawrence Joergen-Dahl, Vice-President.
- Major George W. Ford, Treasurer.
- The Rev. A. J. Carey, D. D., Ph. D.
- Hon. W. Duff Piercy.
- Hon. R. R. Jackson.
- Hon. John Dailey.
- Hon. Medill McCormick.
- Thomas Wallace Swann, Secretary.

Mrs. Joergen-Dahl's resignation because of ill health was later sorrowfully accepted and Hon. John Dailey voted to fill her place.

Thus was taken the initial step which resulted in the bringing of nearly a quarter of a million visitors to Chicago during the short space of time between August 22nd and September 16th, 1915, as visitors to the Exposition which was held at that time in the Coliseum.

Mr. Wm. C. Niblack, representing the Commission, extended an invitation to the President of the United States in person to be present and open the Exposition. The President spoke favorably of the undertaking and promised to consider the invitation. However the year 1914 stands out in relief in the hearts of Americans as one which precipitated the nation into matters of such grave importance as to forbid the President's participating.

THE WHITE HOUSE
Washington

August 13, 1915

My dear Mr. Niblack:

I have your letter of July twenty-third and wish most unaffectedly that it were possible for me to be present at the opening of the Lincoln Jubilee and Half-Century Exposition to be held at the Coliseum, Chicago, the latter part of this month, but I think that you will understand that the pressure of matters which need my constant attention renders it practically impossible.

Will you not express to the managers of the Jubilee my sincere appreciation of their kind invitation and my genuine regret that circumstances render it impossible for me to be present?

Cordially and sincerely yours,

WOODROW WILSON.

Mrs. George W. Davis suggested a Tag Day as a means of raising funds for the carrying on of the Exposition. This suggestion was carried out by the passage of an ordinance by the City Council. The management of the Tag Day was left in the hands of Mrs. Davis and Dr. Mary Fitzbutler Waring.

On July 24, in accordance with the city ordinance, taggers were stationed in all parts of the city. The return of the day amounted to $709.74.

EXHIBITS AND EXHIBITORS.

Already the poems of Dunbar and Braithwaite, the essays of Miller and Grinke, the music of Rosamond Johnson, and the paintings of Tanner are the property of the nation and the world. Instead of being led and defended by others as in the past, they are gaining their own leaders, their own voices, their own ideals. Self-realization is thus coming slowly but surely to another of the world's great races and they are to-day girding themselves to fight in the van of progress, not simply for their own rights as men but for the ideals of the greater world in which they live; the emancipation of women, universal peace, democratic government, the socialization of wealth and human brotherhood.

—DuBois.

Relating to the matter of exhibits and exhibitors, for quality, quantity of exhibits, the character of exhibitors and caretakers the National Half-Century Anniversary Exposition ranks first class in affairs of its kind. As expressed in the final report of the chief Field Agent, "This fact is attested to beyond any reasonable doubt." The press all over the country was unanimous in its praise regarding the character of the exhibits and their value from an educational standpoint. The public at large expressed itself as having become better acquainted with the Negro race, its accomplishment and future possibilities by their attendance at this Exposition than at any time in the history of like affairs.

In order to accomplish the stupenduous undertaking toward which the Commission had set its zeal, the members realized that funds much in excess of the amount hoped for from the State Legislature must be available. To this end the Commission set about to accomplish the task of interesting neighboring legislatures in the advisability of co-operating with the Illinois Commission and placing at the disposal of the Negroes in their several states, appropriations which would enable them to make a creditable showing along with Illinois at this time.

Appropriations were received from the states of Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin. Further appropriations came from the B. M. C. of G. U. O. O. F., and from the Board of Education of Chicago $1,000, whereby the colored children of the city could make a demonstration of their accomplishments. These appropriations aggregated a total of $14,000 in addition to the appropriations from the Illinois Legislature.

Efforts in other directions, while unsuccessful in getting appropriations, awakened a number of states to the realization that something should be done whereby they could have a part in this unique exhibit.

Most appreciative mention may here be made of the unflinching struggle made by Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, Senator Sherman and Congressman Martin B. Madden in behalf of the Commission for an appropriation from the National Government. The international character of the Exposition had seemed to warrant such action unquestionably. According to the secretary of the Commission there were two incidents which operated against the appropriation.

(1) The fight against the Howard University appropriation ($101,000) and,

(2) The uncompromising opposition of five Southern senators to the Negro. "These five men," in the terse statement of Senator Lewis, "are not normal upon any question pertaining to the Negro."

Much credit should be given to the citizens of Kansas, who, failing to receive an appropriation from the Legislature, formed an organization and by private subscription raised the funds which brought to the Exposition such a splendid accumulation of exhibits and enthusiastic entertainment on Kansas Day.

Indiana, too, losing in an effort for an appropriation, was re-awakened by the continued enthusiasm of the committees and with the co-operation of the Indiana Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, was brought that splendid exhibit from Indiana without any other funds than such as these women could volunteer themselves.

Exhibits were also sent under the supervision of commissions from Arkansas, Georgia, Iowa, Kentucky, and Tennessee.

The wonderful exhibit from Liberia was under the supervision of Prof. Frederick A. Starr, of the University of Chicago, who received his commission from the Liberian government.

Twenty-five other states, the Dominion of Canada and South Africa, through the courtesy of the M. E. Church and the Baptist Missionary Society, sent their contributions of exhibits.

The Lincoln exhibit, which was loaned by Mr. Charles F. Gunther of Chicago and which attracted the attention of thousands to the Coliseum, was under the supervision of Mr. Gunther and his own corps of assistants.

The Illinois Central R. R., through their chief photographer, Mr. D. H. Milton, sent a splendid contribution in the way of special pictures showing Lincoln's home and surroundings and the industries of the Southern Negro and his great advancement.

A great number of expressions of thanks were received for the splendid care and prompt return of individual and collective contributions and the percentage of complaints was very low.

These exhibits, coming as they did from more than two-thirds of the states in the Union, from Canada, North and South Africa, were representative of the work of the Negro and his advancement along the line of art, literature and science, inventions, agriculture, mechanics, manufacturing and domesticity. Advancement along these lines was shown in quantity, variety and quality such as to be indicative of the splendid rise from slavery to independent knowledge and activity generally.

DEMONSTRATIONS.

The operative character of the Exposition was displayed in the assemblage on the floor of such demonstrations as the wireless telegraph, flashing messages to Washington by the Negro operator, Alonzo Thomas of New Jersey; Elijah McCoy's lubricator, Michigan Morgan's safety device, Ohio; Baker's friction heater, Missouri; the Lambert Feather Company and Morgan Hat Shop, Chicago; Robinson's car-wheel patent, Illinois; Hill and Bailey's decorative plastering, Georgia; Snyder Jones' safety window lock, East Chicago.

The activities of the city of Mound Bayou, Mississippi, a place populated and controlled by Negroes; the No-Water Vapor Company of Chicago; the Wallace Bakery of Chicago and the famous beaten biscuit of Annie Fisher of Missouri; the Overton Manufacturing Company of Chicago; the Lidrington Rug Manufacturing; the Orms' Crocheting; the Davis' embroidery; the Margaret Anderson China paintings; the Woodley and Bishop Schools of Dressmaking; the Balard Photography; the Ohio School of Botany; the Manual Training and Domestic Science Departments of the Chicago Public Schools; the Out-Door Department of the Cook County School System; the Manual Training Department of the Chicago Public Schools; the Out-Door Department of the Cook County Louise Training School for Colored Boys, Chicago; safety drills and first aids given by the Madison County Coal Company miners under the direction of Dr. A. W. Springs of Dewmaine, Illinois. These together with the Emergency Hospital taking care of every case needing attention during the existence of the Exposition under the direction of Dr. M. Grant Dailey and the able superintendence of Mrs. Rosa Snowden, trained nurse of the Cook County Hospital and the Rest Room equipped and managed by the ladies of the O. E. S. were all made a matter of living history by the moving pictures taken under the able direction of Peter P. Jones of Chicago.

There were congresses and exhibits representing the Y. M. C. A. movement among the Negro people, and a Roman Catholic exhibit depicting in pictured, painted and sculptured forms the marvelous progress this great branch of the Christian church is making among its American Negro communicants.

John Brown's daughter exhibited a lock of her father's hair and a model of a fort constructed by him.

There was also on exhibit a box used in the transportation of slaves on the Underground Railway.

The demonstrations mentioned however, do not by any means complete the splendid list of exhibits which literally crowded all the available space in the Coliseum. These are included in a list of approximately twenty thousand items.

THE COMMISSION

The Commission found at the start of its work that it was necessary to build from the ground up. Investigation showed that the Illinois State Reports are almost bare of accurate facts concerning its Negro inhabitants. Closer investigation revealed that the United States Census Reports do not cover many of the gainful occupations in which Illinois Negroes are engaged.

Therefore, a vigorous and industrious campaign was begun. Its first attention was given to the State of Illinois and its Negro people; thence extending its operations throughout the entire American Nation and its outlying possessions; thence to the Black Republics of Liberia, Haiti, and to Santo Domingo, to Abyssinia, Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Cuba, the English, French, German and Danish possessions, to Madagascar, New Zealand and to other foreign countries, where representatives of the Negro people are to be found.

The Commission devoted itself almost exclusively to the work of Administration, entrusting to the Executive Committee, the detailed execution of its plans. Every member of the Commission has been compelled to make individual sacrifices of time and effort in order to more completely conserve its work.

Many visitations were made by Individual Commissioners to distant points, inspecting similar Expositions for the purpose of securing exhibits, and for the procurement of appropriations from friendly State Legislatures and the National Congress.

In each instance, it was necessary for each Commissioner to cover a total of two thousand (2,000) miles or more and to be away from his individual vocation for a period sometimes totaling an entire week, and in instances a much longer period.

These Commissioners serve without pay of any sort. The Act of the Legislature (H. B. 919) especially stipulates that "The Commission shall serve without compensation, but shall be allowed such hotel, railroad and traveling expenses as may be actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of its duties." Nevertheless, the record of their services shows without exception that they have fully discharged their obligations to the State by prompt attendance and faithful and intelligent appreciation of the work which is committed to their hands.

EXPOSITION NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL IN SCOPE.

The initial idea as expressed in the Appropriation Bill creating this Commission was to give an Exposition of the progress made by the Negroes of Illinois since their Emancipation. As soon as the operations of this Commission became generally known, a demand for a celebration, both National and International in scope, became insistent. Early in December, His Excellency, Honorable Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, accepted the office of patron, with the understanding that the epochal event which this movement was designed to celebrate would in every essential degree be worthy of his consideration.

It will be remembered in this connection that President Wilson (while Governor of the State of New Jersey) had originated the bill authorizing a fitting celebration of the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation.

Similar appropriations were made by the Legislatures of the adjoining States of New York and Pennsylvania for purely State expositions. The three celebrations were held during the months of September and October (1913). They attracted much attention but failed to secure nation wide interest, primarily because of the lack of funds and time to make proper preparations.

This Commission was represented at each of these separate celebrations and became thoroughly imbued with the wisdom and necessity of extending the scope of the 1915 celebration. Illinois is the shrine of the Immortal Emancipator, the scene of his first contribution to the struggle for Human Rights, the field where were enacted many of the most notable events in the drama for Negro Freedom. It is the home of many of the most noble pioneers in this history changing event. A still more practical reason impelled the change. The Commission believed that the general idea underlying its work could be best conserved by gathering the fruits of the Freedmen everywhere and by comparative analysis this unequaled visible demonstration of universal, progressive effort, would act as an impetus to spur the Illinois Negro forward to still greater industry and achievement. This in itself warrants and makes imperative the appeal for assistance from friendly State Legislatures and from the National Congress.

EXPOSITION HELD IN CHICAGO AUGUST, 1915.

The Exposition was held in the city of Chicago, opening on August 1st, 1915, and continuing thirty days. The main exhibit was displayed in the Coliseum Building. One great feature of the Exposition was a series of great Congresses, Religious, Educational, Sociological, Industrial, Agricultural and Miscellaneous. The International Inter-Racial Congress was a most impressive contribution toward the establishment of a permanent peace between the two races.

THE HISTORIC PAST—THE LIVING PRESENT.

The management of this Exposition movement appreciate its magnificent opportunity to do work which may be beneficially reproduced in scores of lives. While giving due attention to the historic past, they are mainly striving to focalize interest upon the LIVING PRESENT. They will show the actual advances of these people verified by every day evidences in shop and field, in home and office, in the kitchen and the school-room. The energy and power of such missionary activity can thus be embodied into intelligent information and manifold willing efforts. The wisdom gained by ordinary experience shows how few people who talk about the "Progress of the Negro" have comparatively and reliable knowledge gained from personal study and actual information of the subject. How few people realize the tremendous gain which our Negro men and women have made in the past fifty (50) years along the highroad of human endeavor? How startlingly illuminating is this incomplete record which actual study of first hand conditions reveals! The following tables may prove of value in this respect:

RESEARCH WORK.

The research work of the Commission is perhaps the most substantially developed part of its operations. Information blanks have gone and returned from every part of the world where civilized Negroes live. They prove beyond dispute that the intellectual, moral and spiritual uplift of this important portion of the human race exceeds its material growth. Especially is this true in the American Republic, where from former contempt and ridicule, they have passed to the sympathy and wonderment of their white neighbors, while within their own souls the Negro people have arisen from apathy and self-depreciation to more and more just and manly self-assertion.

Our research develops that where nine-tenths of the colored people could not read nor write in 1859, today two-thirds can do so. They, today, publish three hundred papers and periodicals and their voice and expression are receiving profitable consideration among enlightened people. Our records present the most original and striking collection of the achievements of the Negro, past and present, ever collated.

This accurate, scientific collation vindicates the lessons of history. It is unmistakable proof that all mankind possesses the same fundamental human traits, and the same innate capacities. The development of special or peculiar talents depends upon cultural environment, and history shows us that this changes from year to year and century to century.

"LET US KEEP STEP TO THE MUSIC OF THE REPUBLIC."

The whole idea of those who were entrusted with the responsibility of managing the Illinois Half-Century Exposition is beautifully stated in the above injunction from Mr. Lincoln. Back of it all this is to be "A LESSON IN SIMPLE AMERICAN DEMOCRACY!" The aim of this exposition was not to show the prowess of one race over the other. Far from it. The ideal of unity and co-operation will be all pervasive. The first thing to do is not to emphasize differences, and to formulate platforms, but to come together in a spirit of human brotherhood and to work for those things about which there exists no difference of opinion. Moreover, there is nothing that begets suspicion and distrust so much as ignorance. We are always dubious about the people we do not know, especially if we have been trained in a traditional belief that they hold wrong views. This inevitably means failure to understand each other, and inability to appreciate the different points of view. Many of our present economic, social and racial difficulties are due to pure ignorance. There remain, of course, the real and valid differences, but the only way in which these can be appreciated and reconciled is by a better understanding of one another.

The exposition had provided many occasions when the workers for human uplift were brought together. The Congress of Religion was a notable event. The Educational Congress and the International Inter-Racial gathering was an opportunity such as has never been presented to the world's people to meet together, to study together, and to work together for the upreach and outreach of human kind.

PROGRAMS AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

Aside from the exhibits the most potent factor in drawing the splendid attendance to the Exposition, was the character of the entertainment given from day to day for the amusement and edification of those present.

With few exceptions the evening entertainment of week days was given over to fraternal organizations who had been interested in the affair by Major R. R. Jackson. The special Sunday programs for which the Rev. Archibald James Carey was personally responsible were inclined to the religions in character; and instead of an admission fee a silver offering was requested.

The different states which interested and drew enthusiastic crowds by providing special programs were Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Wisconsin, Mississippi, Kansas and New York.

Woman's Day, Catholic Day, Ex-Slaves' Day, Hamilton Club Night, Labor Day, the Baptist Convention and the National Medical Association meeting interested many thousand in attendance at the Exposition.

DEPARTMENTS.

The work of the Celebration and Exposition in Illinois was divided into eight general departments as follows:

1. Department of Religion.
2. Department of Education.
3. Department of Military and Naval Affairs.
4. Department of Industry.
5. Department of Social Progress.
6. Department of Fraternal Organizations.
7. Department of Athletics.
8. Miscellaneous Department.

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGION.

The Department of Religion was the first to be organized. Every denomination in which the Negro holds membership was efficiently canvassed with most encouraging result. The work of the Department of Religion was to illustrate the religious development of the Negro in each denomination represented in Illinois and the various states. Special emphasis was laid upon the spiritual and intellectual progress in Negro church life as disclosed by the influence and variety of his religious activity, in addition to the number and material value of church property and schools. To this was added a religious exhibit. The services of the most prominent white and Negro members of the church and laity in the United States and many foreign countries were enlisted. The following classification is both unique and invaluable.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.

The Department of Education had the work of combining the advancement of the Negro people in all the lower and higher culture through the Common Schools, High Schools, Academies, Colleges and Universities. The exhibit showed this progress concretely. The leading Colleges, Schools and Seminaries in the United States and Liberia maintained for Negro pupils were brought into touch with the Exposition.

THE DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY AND NAVAL AFFAIRS.

The Department of Military and Naval Affairs demonstrated the fact of the Negro's participation in all the wars of the nation and the military life of the states. This was emphasized by a collection of selected exhibits displaying the prominent part contributed by the Negro soldier and sailor on land and sea as an act of defense and as a support of American institution from early colonial times to the present day.

THE DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRY.

The Department of Industry illustrated the progress of the Negro in all the lower grades and avenues of employment to which the Negro has been admitted as a wage earner, together with his development along the lines of independent and competitive business enterprise, with appropriate exhibits in agriculture, banking, insurance, real estate, photography, catering, tonsorial, grocery and similar business vocations.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL PROGRESS.

The Department of Social Progress embraced Negro advancement and activity in the higher forms of industry and culture, as inventions, the sciences and professions. Aside from a suitable exhibit, representative of the Negro's higher intellectual and industrial life, a sociological congress was held, during which leading sociologists of the races were invited to discuss and consider the different phases of American race relationships.

DEPARTMENT OF FRATERNAL ORGANIZATIONS.

In this department a wealth of data was gathered and wide publicity given to the whole work of the exposition.

DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS.

The laurels won by the Negro in the field of athletics were exhibited by the department.

THE MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENT.

The Miscellaneous Department had charge of the lines of Negro activity which are not included in the foregoing departments, such as women's work, historical societies, public comfort, exploration, civics, philanthropic and benevolent movements and in addition to representative exhibits, a mothers' congress was held at which leading female representatives discussed the problems associated with the improvements of Negro home life.
