PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 90th CONGRESS
FIRST SESSION

VOLUME 113—PART 6

MARCH 16, 1967, TO APRIL 4, 1967

(PAGES 6867 TO 8332)

native, that new legislation be passed which specifically permits the investment of Indian Tribal Trust Funds in securities of agencies of the Federal Government.

n. That appropriate administrative action be taken or legislation in the absence of the administrative action to provide that the interest earnings on advance deposits received from successful bidders on oil and gas sales be credited to the Tribal Account rather than to the Bureau of Indian Affairs' "Indian Money—Proceeds of Labor" account.

o. That the Congress be informed that the Navajo Tribe favors a complete study of the education situation on Indian reservations as proposed by Senator Fannin.

p. That the Navajo Tribe opposes any transfer of the education program from the Bureau of Indian Affairs to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, unless the study proposed by Senator Fannin shows that there will be some definite benefits to be derived from such a transfer.

q. Legislation to authorize appeals from the Navajo Tribal Courts into the Federal Court system in both civil and criminal cases. (Senate Bill 962 introduced in the last Congress would provide only for appeals in certain criminal actions while this proposed legislation would cover both criminal and civil actions).

r. Legislation providing sufficient funds for Indian tribes to set up a juvenile program to be administered by tribal personnel, including funds to make provisions for foster homes. Funds should also be provided for the construction of appropriate juvenile facilities.

s. Legislation authorizing the transfer of Antelope Point to the Navajo Tribe for recreational development (see Resolution CAU-98-66).

t. Legislation amending the present law so that jurisdiction of Indian reservations can be taken over by the states only upon consent of the Indian tribe concerned.

u. Legislation providing for intensified training programs for Indians to teach skilled trades and qualify the trainees as journeyman in the particular trade so that they may qualify for employment anywhere in the United States.

v. Legislation providing incentives for industry to locate on Indian reservations.

w. Legislation providing loan funds on liberal terms for small businesses to be located on Indian reservations by Indians. Training programs should be provided in connection with the establishment of said small businesses.

x. Legislation pertaining to the Executive Order of 1882 asking for adjudication by the U.S. Supreme Court to resolve the land dispute between the Navajo and Hopi Tribes of Indians according to 1958 Act of Congress.

2. The Navajo Tribal Council, on behalf of the Navajo Tribe, hereby requests the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to draft, and after consultation with the Advisory Committee of the Navajo Tribal Council to present, bills to the Congress of the United States regarding all of the above subjects.

3. The Legislative Secretary of the Navajo Tribal Council is hereby authorized and directed to send a copy of this resolution and the minutes of the Council meeting regarding discussion of this resolution to the said Commissioner of Indian Affairs for his guidance in drafting said bills.

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was duly considered by the Navajo Tribal Council at a duly called meeting at Window Rock, Arizona, at which a quorum was present and that same was passed by a vote of 42 in favor and 9 opposed, this 25th day of January, 1967.

NELSON DAMON,
Vice Chairman, Navajo Tribal Council.
